

International House, UC Berkeley & the United Nations Association-USA, East Bay, Present

Environment and Climate: Honoring Nobel Peace Prize Winners Who Changed the Global Agenda

UNITED NATIONS 63rd ANNIVERSARY Banquet and Celebration

October 24, 2008, United Nations Day

International House, 2299 Piedmont Avenue, 6-8:45 PM

- Honor leading experts who shared the Nobel Prize for their work with the UN's Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change.
- Learn how four principal contributors and their colleagues of the IPCC built the historic international consensus:
 - ◆ Science of Climate Change: Surabi Menon (Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory) and Karl Taylor (Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory)
 - ◆ Impacts, Adaptation and Vulnerabilities: Kirk Smith (UCB)
 - ◆ Mitigation of Climate Change: Jayant Sathaye (Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory)
- Present Third Annual Global Citizen Awards to others who are fulfilling the UN Millennium Development Goals (MDGs)
- Enjoy a reception at 6:00, followed by an international banquet

Last year's UN Day Program was sold out -- so register early!

$30 (seniors $20, students $15)

Table sponsors: $400-$1000

For reservations email: unday2008@gmail.com.

For more information visit www.unausaeastbay.org or call 510-864-9005.

